

VOTE—Half The World Cant You Have The Privilege

Tuesday registered voters have the privilege — and it's more and more becoming a DUTY — to vote for a democratic and a republican candidate for the Legislature.

There are two vacancies, resulting from the reapportionment, in a body which deals with laws closer to our everyday life than any other.

More than half the folks in the world either can't vote at all, or have ONE candidate.

The small vote in the primary is a shameful consideration for the PRIVILEGED DUTY — VOTE: If you can't vote for someone, VOTE again SOMEONE, or some THING!

Who-Where-How Spends Your Money?

Sewerage Disposal Plant

Belle Glade's sewerage treatment plant operates at 20 to 25 percent capacity, with a slowly increasing demand, but is paying its own expenses — except the return of capital investment — thru '62.

During the year '61-62 income from the sewerage system paid its running expenses, plus over $4,000 for extensions, plus $9,000 principal retirement, plus an $18,000 item for depreciation, with a $9,600 advance from the water department funds.

The budget for '62-63 anticipates the ability to do the same thing with only a $2,300 advance from the water department.

Supervisor James Moon reports that a saving of some $2,000 by improved methods of operating is expected in the current year's operation.

James Moon, Supervisor of the Sewerage Treatment plant is a Florida product, with two-year attendance at the U of Fla. following graduation from high school.

Secondary Road Program Considered At Lauderdale Thurs., March 14th

The secondary road program hearing for District Four will be held March 14 at the State Road Department district office in Fort Lauderdale, Road Board member John H. Monahan announced today.

The secondary road program, financed by the 5th, 6th and 7th cents of the state gasoline tax, is adopted after recommendations by the individual boards of county commissioners.

The hearings determine the secondary road improvement to be programmed for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1963, and ending June 30, 1964.

Individuals or groups interested in primary highway projects should also bring them to the attention of their board of county commissioners prior to the hearings. Monahan said the Road Department considers recommendations by the boards of county commissioners before adopting its primary construction budget.

Following the district hearings, the Road Board will adopt a tentative statewide budget at its monthly meeting April 11. This tentative budget includes both secondary and primary projects. The primary projects are financed by the first four cents of the state gasoline tax.

A public hearing will be held on the statewide tentative budget at the Road Board's monthly meeting in Tallahassee May 29, and the final operating budget will be adopted in Tallahassee June 20.

Palm Beach County will be heard at 3:30 in the afternoon.

Christian Science Lecture Sunday At Local Church

What hope is there for mankind's spiritual progress in the twentieth century? Thomas A. McClain of Chicago will take up this question in a public lecture on Christian Science in Belle Glade next Sunday afternoon.

Mr. McClain will speak in the Christian Science Church at S. E. First and Ave "E" at 3:15. He is a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, and will speak here under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist of Belle Glade. Admission is free.

Mr. McClain was formerly on the advertising sales staff of the Louisville Courier Journal and Times in his native Kentucky. After military service during World War Two, he became a Christian Science Minister at Fort Knox, and in 1930 began to devote full time to the practice of Christian Science healing.

Since then, a position with The First Church of Christ, Scientists, in Boston has taken Mr. McClain on extensive travels in the United States and Great Britain in the interest of branch church activities. He has also participated in a number of Christian Science radio and television programs.

The title of Mr. McClain's lecture will be Christian Science: Its Messages to the Twentieth Century.

TODAY'S Meditation

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Read Romans 5:12-21

Where sin abounded, grace did much more abound. (Romans 5:20).

While doing an intricate piece of embroidery, I made a mistake early in the work because I had not followed instructions carefully. I undid the work; but even though I was rid of the wrong stitches, holes were left in the linen.

When we do not heed God's instructions, we soon find ourselves far from following the way of life He has set for us as exemplified in the life of His Son. He forgives us when we confess to Him our wrongdoing; but oft-times there remains the damage of our wrongdoing.

One of the punishments of our sin is the knowledge that what we do affects others as well as ourselves. There is God's forgiveness, but there are also consequences, and, as George Eliot said in one of her novels, "Consequences are unifying."

By God's grace and with His help, we can go on to follow the pattern and perhaps make amends for the wrong stitches.

PRAYER: Dear God, our forgiving Father, we are sorry for our sins. For by our wrongdoing we have harmed others as well as ourselves. Help us to make restitution if possible and follow hereafter the way pointed out in the life and by the spirit of Thy Son. In His name we ask. Amen.

That Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

The witnesses to this fact for this week is the DEVILS.

"And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way. — And, behold, they cried out, saying What have we to do with thee, Jesus, THOU SON OF GOD? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?" What's Inside?

WHAT MAGIC INGREDIENTS DO THESE BOTTLES CONTAIN? Do they hold harmful, insidious poisons? Or are they filled with healing medicines and vitamins? Will they inflict pain, or will they cure disease?

But what does it matter? If the contents are bad, we can pour them out. But the minds of children are an entirely different matter. A small human being can be filled with selfishness and hate, or he can be filled with sincerity and love. Unfortunately, evil is more quickly dispelled from a glass bottle than from the soul of a child. For in the human mind bad thoughts can grow, and as time goes on, it is more difficult to replace them with truth and love.

That is why it is so important to instill within our children a sense of right and wrong at an early age. Of course, for example, "you" can be a tremendous influence. But you need the help of your church—the wisdom of Christ's teachings. With them, you can fill your heart with the essential ingredients for a happy and fruitful life.

Pig Doggin'-Wild Hog Barbecue

Saturday & Sunday, March 9 & 10

The 13th Annual Wild Hog Barbecue and Jamboree street by the Everglades Conservation and Sportsman Club this year will again feature a Pig Doggin' Contest and a Cypress Shimmy Contest. The contests will be run both days of the Barbecue which is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, March 9 and 10, at the club grounds near Monroe Station on the Tamiami Trail approximately 60 miles west of Miami.

The Pig Doggin' Contest is limited to boys between 12 and 15 years of age. The idea is to pin down a wild pig in the shortest possible time. The fact that the arena is churned up mud and the pigs are pressed is not expected to present too much of a handicap to the contestants. Registration for the contest will take place each day at 10:30 a. m. and each contestant will be assigned a time during the day when he will try his luck. A "Hog Rascal" Champ trophy will be presented to the winner each day.

Club President Jack Switzer reports, "There will be plenty of exciting features, such as free swamp buggy rides, and lots of good country food at this year's Jamboree."

Newest Fred Waring Production

At Playhouse Mar. 11 For Week

Fred Waring and the Pennsylvanians, who will present the newest Waring production, "Fred Waring and His Wonderful World of Music," at Frank J. Hale's RP Playhouse on Mar. 11 for a week's engagement, have been summoned to the White House in Washington, D. C. on five special state occasions to provide musical programs.

The Waring troupe has entertained at inauguration ceremonies and also during receptions that were held in the nation's capital for such distinguished visitors as the Queen of England, the Prime Minister of Canada and the President of Ireland.

The Waring organizations is especially known for their entertainment for servicemen during World War II, and now on the campuses of the nation. In Austin, Texas, where the Pennsylvanians were sponsored by the University of Texas, the group performed before 12,000 persons at each of two shows.

This year, upwards of 100 cities across the nation will be visited by the company that, it would appear, travels in seven-league boots. The present tour will introduce Waring's latest production, the spanning new "Wonderful World of Music," a cavalcade of great popular songs that have become favorites not only of the maestro of the Pennsylvanians, but of all America. It will encompass the songs that Waring likes to call "The Unforgettables," songs that have won a permanent place in the hearts of audiences all across the country.

Glades Different

In Zoning Matters

Rardin Points Out

Because zoning and building conditions vary between the coastal and Glades sections County Commissioner Paul Rardin has asked for special legislation to establish a Glades zoning commission.

Rardin told his colleagues the economy of the Glades area is much different than the coast section, plus the fact that building on the much in the Glades is different, and that establishment of a Glades zoning group would relieve a lot of "problems and headaches" which the commission now has with one zoning commission working on a county-wide basis.

If special legislation is enacted to give the commission authority to name the special zoning group, the commission would be made up of Glades residents familiar with all problems of that area.

Rardin described the proposed action as "a service we want to give to the people who are building the county."

The commission approved Rardin's suggestion and instructed its legal department to determine if the second zoning commission can legally be established.
